My proposed research project can be conducted best by making use of the holdings of the Asian Division of the Library of Congress.

My proposed research project entails the use of both Asian and non-Asian language materials held only in the Library of Congress (i.e. materials cannot be found elsewhere).

My proposed research project entails the use of both Asian and non-Asian language materials held in the Library of Congress.

23. Provide a Research Proposal (3500 characters maximum).

a. The proposal should describe which of the Library of Congress collections and/or materials the researcher would like to use and the nature and anticipated results of the research project. Preference normally will be given to proposals that indicate at least some use of the holdings of the Asian Division.

b. If accepted, when do you plan to come to the Library?

VII. Financial Situation

24. Source of Funding

Please choose only one of the following:

I have no alternative source of funding.

I have other funding for this research project but it would be impossible for me to conduct my research in the Asian Division of the Library of Congress without additional support in the form of a Florence Tan Moeson fellowship.

I have other funding for this research project but conducting research in the Asian Division of the Library of Congress would entail financial hardship unless I receive a Florence Tan Moeson fellowship.

I have sufficient funds to conduct my research, but the receipt of a Florence Tan Moeson fellowship would enable me to conduct my research in greater depth.

25. Budget Estimate.

Provide an itemized list of anticipated expenses, a statement of the availability of funding from other sources, and an indication of financial need in support of your response to the above question.

VIII. References

Provide the names, telephone numbers, and email addresses of three people who are familiar with your work and/or research capabilities. Please do not ask them to submit any letter of reference on your behalf. The Asian Division will contact them directly.
